

PRESS RELEASE

IHI WINS BEST INTERNATIONAL PRIVATE HEALTH GROUP AWARD

27 May 2004

IHI, the world's largest provider of international individual health insurance, has won the "Best International Private Health Group" award at the International Investment awards, on Thursday 20th May 2004. The short list for the award included Interglobal and Allianz Worldwide Care.

The award was based on the following criteria:

- Commitment to target market
- Security and levels of support offered by parent group
- Appropriateness of product range
- Use of technology and product innovation
- Levels of service and support to distributors
- Involvement at industry level

Now in its fourth year, International Investment magazine presented its Offshore Awards at the annual Offshore Forum in London, at the Victoria Park Plaza Hotel on Thursday, 20 May 2004, in association with Standard & Poor's.

Per Bay Jørgensen, CEO of IHI, comments "This award serves as recognition that IHI is fast becoming the leading provider of international health insurance, against which others now benchmark their standards. The award is evidence that our international objective to meet our clients' needs stands true; it is proof that we have the financial security, the technology, the product range and the level of service to be the best international health insurer."

IHI has specialised in international medical plans for more than 30 years, with services available in 190 countries.

ENDS